Rail, Union Negotiators Reopen Talks

Meeting Called by Wirtz; No Word Given on Progress

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time in weeks, railroad and union representatives face each other today across the bargaining table, a sign that negotiators believe they have chipped an opening in the deadlock over jobs.

"In another 24 to 48 hours, we should know whether we're shadow-boxing or really making progress," J. E. Wolfe, the carrier's chief negotiator, said Monday night.

Wirtz Calls Meeting

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz called today's joint meetings with each side Monday night.

She refused, however, to say whether any progress had been made.

Meetings were set up between the carriers and the representatives and firemen—and between the carriers and the train crew unions — conductors, brakemen and switchmen.

Wirtz said he would be on hand for both but also has to appear before a closed session of the House Commerce Committee which is keeping an eye on negotiations while studying President Kennedy's legislative recommendations for settling the work rules dispute.

To avert a strike over new work rules—designed to eliminate thousands of rail jobs, principally those of diesel freight firemen—Kennedy suggested turning the dispute over to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Opposed Kennedy Plan
The unions strongly opposed the Kennedy plan, calling the ICC management-oriented. The carriers supported it.

To give Congress time to act, the carriers postponed the new work rules until Aug. 22.

The Senate committee received a statement Monday from the railroads which was termed a supplemental rebuttal to union arguments against the President's proposals.

"The parties are at an impasse and the national interest is threatened," said the statement. It said some action must be taken and only the legislative branch can take it.

The railroads charged that the unions oppose the administration bill "because it will accomplish exactly what they meticulously and methodically avoided for 4 1/2 years, settlement of the dispute."

A Labor Department spokesman said Monday's session concerned the dispute's two chief issues: the firemen jobs and the make-up of train crews.

Rusk, Home Meet With Gromyko

Western, Soviet Ministers Confer on Disputed Issues

MOSCOW (AP) — The foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union today began exploring possibilities for lowering East-West tensions in the wake of their nuclear test ban treaty.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk led the American delegation to the conference in the Soviet Foreign Office with Lord Home, British foreign secretary, and Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko of the Soviet Union.

The American and British delegations had conferred on what might be developed on such subjects as nonaggression pledges, prevention of surprise attack, denuclearized zones and the perennial German problem.

Rusk was accompanied to the conference by Adlai E. Stevenson, chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations; William C. Foster, director of the American Disarmament Agency; Ambassador Foy D. Kohler, and Charles Stelle, U.S. representative to the Geneva disarmament conference.

The conference was to continue through lunch at the official reception house in the Lenin Hills, the building where Chinese and Soviet delegates held their abortive meetings last month on the Peking-Moscow ideological dispute.

Members of the U.S. Senate delegation who accompanied Rusk to Moscow were guests today to Soviet parliamentary leaders in the Kremlin. They will return to Washington Wednesday.

The test ban treaty—pledging to abstain from nuclear weapon tests in the atmosphere, outer space and under water — was signed by the foreign ministers Monday. Soviet Premier Khrushchev called it the "first sprouts of international confidence" and said his government "would do everything in its power for these sprouts to develop and gain in strength."

Rusk and Lord Home made similar pledges but neither laid

Racial Tension Marks Primary

Mississippi Dems Picking Candidate

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Election officials kept an uneasy watch for Negro vote-ins today as an estimated 450,000 Mississippians began voting in the Democratic primary.

Reports circulated that unregistered Negroes would invade the polls despite a ruling by Atty. Gen. Joe Patterson that such a move would be illegal.

The racial tension climaxed a campaign which centered on civil rights and the Kennedy administration. The four gubernatorial candidates, all segregationists, spent most of the campaign emphasizing their opposition to Kennedy racial policies.

The four are:
—Former Gov. J. P. Coleman, 49, an Ackerman lawyer who headed the state government from 1956-60.

—Lt. Gov. Paul Johnson, 47, a Hattiesburg lawyer making his fourth bid for governor.

—Robert Mason, 65, a Magee welder who polled 2,704 votes in his 1959 race for governor.

—Charles Sullivan, 38-year-old Clarksdale lawyer who as an unknown finished a strong third in his race for governor four years ago.

Polls opened at 7 a.m. CST and close at 6 p.m.

Observers predicted a close vote necessitating a runoff Aug. 27. Coleman was expected to face Johnson or Sullivan in the runoff, with the Democratic nominee to go against Republican Rubel Phillips and independent Ed Bishop of the Nov. 5 general election.

The winner will succeed Gov. Ross Barnett, prohibited by state law from succeeding himself. Barnett has followed Mississippi custom by taking no public part in the race for a successor.

The vote-in plans reported by Negro sources would be an effort by unregistered persons to cast ballots under a state law permitting those wrongly omitted from

Hiroshima Mourns Atom Bomb Dead

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP)—The people of Hiroshima paused today to mourn the victims of history's first atom bomb attack, made on their city 18 years ago today. But they took heart from the signing of the partial nuclear test ban treaty in Moscow.

At 8:15 a.m.—the exact time the American B29 "Enola Gay" dropped the bomb on Aug. 6, 1945 — a swarm of doves wheeled into the air and the Hiroshima peace bell began its sorrowful toll.

A crowd of 15,000 stood with bowed heads for a minute of silence before the simple, arched memorial to the city's atomic dead.

Mayor Shinzo Hamai, dressed in black, referred to Moscow treaty in his memorial address, that at long last a pact for the partial banning of nuclear weapons has been concluded by the United States, the United Kingdom and the Soviet Union.

The memorial ceremony was brief and restrained, in marked contrast to the confusion and political bickering which broke up the opening Monday night of the Communist-dominated ninth world conference against hydrogen and atom bombs.

Delegates from Red China, Soviet Russia and many other countries were present at the commemoration today, but they were relegated to the background.

The conference split over whether to denounce nuclear testing by the Western powers only, as Red Chinese and the Japanese Communists demanded, or testing by all nations, as the Russians and the Japanese Socialist proposed.

Japanese Socialists and labor unionists walked out of the opening ceremony, resigned from the conference and prepared to stage a conference of their own. The Soviet delegation, the Indians and others turned their backs Monday night on a Chinese delegate who was condemning the nuclear test ban treaty.

2 More File for Beaver Board

17 Other Candidates Seek County Posts

Two new aspirants for four-year terms on the Beaver Local Board of Education filed Monday with the County Election Board at East Liverpool to assure at least a four-way contest for three seats at the Nov. 5 election.

Seventeen other candidates also entered yesterday afternoon for the non-partisan school township and village posts, boosting the total to 118.

Three more candidates were listed this morning. They are: Henry Taggart, of trustee of Yellow Creek Township Roland M. Dorr, for a post on the United Local School District Board of Education, and Carol L. Brice-land, for clerk of Franklin Township.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, Election Board clerk, warned potential candidates the deadline to file for the non-partisan posts is Wednesday at 5 p.m.

Filing for the $36-a-year posts on the Beaver Local Board were Bruce A. Costanzo of Cream Ridge Rd., a former Beaver Local High School teacher, and Mrs. Veronica E. Wolski of West Point.

Costanzo and Mrs. Wolski join W. Clayton Aughinbaugh and Mrs. Mildred Eells, both of Caucutta, who filed earlier. The terms of Jack Pozenel of West Point, Board president, R. J. Schiff of East Liverpool and George Wilkinson of Oakmont are expiring. None has filed for re-election.

Several other school district and township candidates also entered along with partial slates from Salineville and Summitville. The new Salineville candidates are Howard Wolfe for mayor and Eugene Jarvis and Howard Ahlborn for council.

The partial slate from Summitville included Ernest T. Phillips seeking a new term as mayor; Marjorie C. Roberts for clerk; Evelyn Rogers for treasurer, and Robert L. Carter and Arthur P.

'Papa Doc' Has Plenty of Trouble

Time Running Out For Haiti Dictator

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—In Louisiana there's an old saying: "God hates ugly." It means you'll get yours in time, if you're a heel or you hurt people. Yet Francois (Papa Doc) Duvalier, who isn't pretty, is still Haiti's dictator. But time is running out. He's had trouble aplenty. He's made plenty, Monday before dawn about 500 exiled Haitian officers and soldiers reportedly landed and started an invasion of this island which Columbus liked.

If this flops, Duvalier can expect something else. His opposition within Haiti has been expelled to pieces by mass arrests, chieftain, and political blackmail. He's too hated to sleep well.

Last month young rebels fought his regime in the mountains until they were crushed. He had a crisis in April with an army plot against him. It failed. But his army suffered. Top officers fled.

He doesn't trust his army, about 5,000 men trained mainly in police work. He has his own militia, the dreaded Ton-Ton Macoutes (Creole for boogymen). He had a crisis with the United States too.

He was elected in 1957, supposedly for seven years, not because he was loved but because Haiti's Negro masses had to choose between Duvalier, a Negro, and his opponent, a mulatto. The bitterness between Negroes, mostly illiterate, and the better-educated mulattoes goes back almost to the beginning of the country.

But when his term was up May 15, he decided to stay a few years more. He claimed that an election two years ago legally extended his rule. This country was self-conscious anyway for having supported this dictator, the worst in Latin America. So it suspended diplomatic relations with him. This was an empty gesture.

He crushed his opponents and kept office. Then, even though the State Department said he had imposed a reign of terror, it resumed relations with him June 3.

But Duvalier pulled Uncle Sam's whiskers, a popular tactic in Haiti which remembers that U.S. Ma-

Exile Sources Say Force of 500 Landed

Rebels Advance Toward Nation's 2nd Largest City

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Organization of American States called an emergency meeting of its council today to discuss the exile invasion of Haiti.

The meeting was set for 3 p.m. Fern D. Baguidy, Haiti's ambassador to the OAS, asked for the meeting.

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—An invasion by a small force of exiled soldiers on the north coast of neighboring Haiti threatened the terrorist regime of voodoo-preaching dictator Francois (Papa Doc) Duvalier today.

Duvalier's government acknowledged the landing and prepared an appeal for intervention by the Organization of American States. Haiti's ambassador to the OAS, Ferd D. Baguidy, charged that the invaders came from the Dominican Republic, which shares the island of Hispaniola with Haiti.

Captured Four Towns
Haitian exile sources in Santo Domingo said at least 500 well-armed men trained for guerrilla warfare landed at Fort Liberté at 3 a.m. Monday and quickly captured the towns of Fort Liberté, Derac, Trou and Limonade.

Their immediate objective was Cap Haitien, Haiti's second largest city, 18 miles west of Fort Liberté.

At nightfall the radio in Cap Haitien was still in government hands, appealing for a united front to halt the invaders.

Reports reaching here said American families were evacuated to Cap Haitien from the U.S.-owned Dauphin sisal plantation on the orders of the Duvalier government. The plantation lies near Fort Liberté, about 5 miles west of the Dominican border.

Censors Bar Newsmen
A news source in Port au Prince said Monday night little was known in public there except that fighting the Haitian army in the north. Censors barred correspondents from sending out news by cable.

Port au Prince is 40 miles south of the invasion site.

Gen. Leon Cantave, chief of the Haitian armed forces for five months in 1957, led the invasion under the banner of the National Democratic Union. Cantave told an interviewer recently he was

Military Pay Boost Sought

Proponents Cite Inadequate Scale

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thousands of Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine enlisted men have had to turn to charity because they are unable to make ends meet on their service incomes.

An Associated Press survey of the military services and service-affiliated relief organizations indicated today that the relief agencies have paid out millions of dollars to help provide military families with such needs as food and clothing.

Some families accept food surplus packages. Others, particularly those with many children, are able to draw state welfare payments.

Armed forces personnel specialists said many men take jobs in bowling alleys, filling stations, groceries and other private businesses to add to their service pay. Their wives often work.

One Marine welfare officer called it "disgraceful" that senior non-commissioned officers living in Washington, D.C., area should have to take off-duty civilian jobs to keep their heads above water.

The armed services said they do not know even approximately how many of their men have been drawing some form of relief.

A hint of the scope comes from the semi-official military relief organizations, which operate on voluntary contributions. These groups were set up because regulations bar the services from using government funds to furnish emergency aid.

Army Emergency Relief gave out $4,178,661 in loans and grants last year. One-third of this went to 12,215 cases to pay for food, rent, and utilities.

The Navy Relief Society distributed $4,056,570 in 1962, about half going to avert want among Navy men, Marines, their wives and children.

The Air Force Aid Society paid out more than $750,000 between December and May. No breakdown was available of the portion devoted to staffing off destitution.

The help furnished by service relief societies is generally of a one-shot variety. For long-term help, the services are banking on a $1.2-billion military pay bill before Congress. It would provide the first military pay boost in five years, but would not provide more money for privates and seamen.

Pentagon leaders headed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara contend the pay situation is damaging morale among the 2.7 million people in the armed forces and driving men with valuable skills out of uniform.

SEIZE MUNITIONS — FBI agent unloads a small trailer loaded with more than a ton of dynamite, 20 aerial bomb casings and other munitions thirty miles from New Orleans. Explosives are believed to have been gathered for an assault on Cuba.

Barber Shop Operator Charged With Holdup

CLEVELAND (AP)—Harold H. Thompson, operator of a Portsmouth barber shop, has been charged with four holdups of Ohio financial institutions, and the FBI says he may have been involved in three others.

The loot from the seven holdups

in a little more than three years totaled more than $31,000, the FBI says.

Lawrence Rawlins, 29, of Portsmouth, arrested with Thompson July 29 shortly after a holdup in Medina, allegedly was involved in two other holdups with Thompson, and charges will be filed, the FBI said Monday.

Rawlins allegedly acted as lookout for Thompson, 34, on three holdups, said Edward E. Hargett, agent in charge of the FBI's Cleveland office.

Hargett listed the three holdups in which charges are being filed against both men as the Medina holdup, in which $2,395 in cash and $3,700 in travelers checks was taken from an Akron Savings & Loan Association branch; the $5,058 holdup Nov. 20, 1961, of the Perry Heights branch of the State Banking Co. in Massillon, and the $1,994 holdup last July 23 of the West Branch office of the Park Federal Savings & Loan Association in Columbus.

Thompson, also has been charged with the $7,052 holdup April 26, 1962, of the Kenwood Plaza branch of the Eagle Savings & Loan Association in Cincinnati. He was arraigned Monday before Commissioner H. A. Horn on this charge, and he waived a hearing.

He is being held in Cuyahoga County Jail in lieu of $35,000 bond. Rawlins is held in lieu of $25,000 bond.

Other holdups the FBI said Thompson may have been involved in were in the Columbus area. They include the $2,059 holdup Sept. 28, 1961, of the Central Savings & Loan; the $1,477 holdup Oct. 30, 1961, of the Peoples Savings Association, Bexley - East-moor branch, and the $10,274, holdup Nov. 28, 1962, of the Ohio Federal Savings and Loan's Upper Arlington branch. Hargett said the investigation of those holdups is continuing.

Unfunny Comedian

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Peter Sellers, regarded by many as Britain's dearest comic actor, looks at life with a big question mark in his eyes.

Wherever he is, he seems faintly puzzled to be there.

"I'm a very serious person in my private life — the unfunniest person alive," he said.

"Humor tends to make you melancholy, because comedy is the most serious form of acting. People who specialize in it become morose."

Peter is noted for his wide range of roles. He has played everything from a duchess to a union leader in such films as "The Mouse That Roared," "I'm All Right, Jack," and "Heaven's Above."

In his first American-made picture, "The World of Henry Orient," he portrays a fumble-fingered pianist who would rather chase married women than give concerts.

Since his parents, his grandmother and eight uncles had been in show business, it was perhaps inevitable that Sellers would get in the act, too. He started on the ground floor—as a theater sweep-

Royal Air Force planes with bullets and bombs.

"It was sort of a dead end," he remarked. "I didn't see much future doing that on civvy street." Self-taught, Peter developed his gift for mimicry by appearing in camp shows. Then he became a vaudeville, radio and television star before making his first picture, "Let's Go Crazy," in 1950.

"It was so bad it never was released and it bloody well never will be," he said. "I bought it out myself to make sure."

What is the real Peter Sellers like? Wearing dark-rimmed eyeglasses, and looking like a curly haired owl surprised by daylight, the actor, 37, found it a bit embarrassing to talk about himself. He is no playboy.

"The big problem of men my age is to avoid coronary attacks and still achieve success," he said.

"I like to be alone a lot when I'm working, because I concentrate a lot and involve myself completely. You have to. This is a highly overpaid profession; therefore one owes it to the public to give the best one can, and this requires complete addiction."

"I like driving at night in precision-made cars" (Peter has owned more than 50), photographing people in candid situations, getting plenty of sleep. I need eight or nine hours or I'm finished, watching and reading other humorists."

This is the creed he lives by: "The only way to succeed — to be happy with yourself — is through kindness. I will do anything for anybody who asks me, but if I am told to do it, I revolt against it."

"I don't believe in an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, but I haven't quite reached the point where I can turn the other cheek."

Paul Verna, a former Haitian diplomat representing the National Democratic Union, said an unidentified island off the coast was used as a staging area for the invasion. Some of the invaders were identified as former Haitian army officers who had been living in Santo Domingo.

Dictator

rines occupied the country from 1915 to 1934. Duvalier demanded that Ambassador Raymond L. Thurston be withdrawn. The United States withdrew him.

Duvalier had trouble with the United States before that. Last March he threw out Marine Col. Robert Heintz, former boss of the U.S. military mission in Haiti.

Heintz angered Duvalier a year ago by writing a letter—which leaked out—to army chief of staff Col. Jean Rene Boucaut. Heintz allegedly deplored Duvalier's downgrading of the regular army in favor of a civilian militia and demanded that the militia be dissolved. It wasn't.

Duvalier began a purge that ousted or exiled almost all his pro-U.S. officers, who could have led a move to overthrow him. He got even tougher. He ordered the U.S. Navy and Air Force missions to leave Haiti. The last left July 26. Remaining in Port au Prince are only the U.S. military attaché, Major John Warren, and seven Marine guards.

The country is in bad shape. Its finances are suffering. Government employees are discontented with their pay cut.

Private and public investment has disappeared in the past two years. So has tourism, which produced roughly $8 million a year, about a quarter of the national budget. American dollar aid has been withdrawn. Beggars are everywhere.

Haiti's 4 million people, in a country the size of Maryland, live 300 to a square mile.

Columbus called the island—now divided into Haiti and the Dominican Republic — Hispaniola. But Haiti, the Indian word for Place of Mountains, stuck. Columbus loved the simple, gentle Indians he found there. He said "they love their neighbors as themselves."

Within 30 years most of the Indians were dead. When the Spaniards moved out, the French moved in. So did pirates, and Haiti was used as an unloading wharf for slaves from Africa.

In 1804 the slaves rose up, killed or drove out the whites, set up their own government, and chose an illiterate slave who had led them, Gen. Jean Jacques Dessalines, governor for life. He had himself crowned emperor, said "I, only I, am noble."

The island has had a bloody history of dictatorship, with very few good intervals, ever since. In 1915, President Wilson set the Marines in and took over the country. Various reasons have been given, like wanting to keep the Germans from setting up a base there. President Roosevelt withdrew the Marines in 1934.

The Americans practiced racial discrimination, not only against the Negro masses but also against the mulattoes, who considered themselves the elite. If all Haiti-ans do not love the United States, it's no wonder.

Two Injured As Car Rolls Over

A former wrestling star at Beaver Local High School and his girl companion were treated and released at East Liverpool City Hospital after they were injured in a one-car mishap early today on Rt. 518, two miles west of West Point.

According to the Lisbon barracks of the state highway patrol, Carl E. Hopple, 20, of RD 3, East Liverpool, was traveling east at 12:40 a.m. when he lost control of his auto, went off the right side of the road, swerved back to the left side, went off the road and rolled over.

Hopple suffered possible hip and knee injuries, while his companion, Linda Barnes of RD 2, Lisbon, received lacerations of the knee.

In the only other area traffic mishap, Jacqueline Ann Cox, 20, of Kensington drove her vehicle off the right side of Rt. 172 near Guilford Lake to avoid hitting a farm tractor driven by Donald Milhoan, 50, of RD 4, Lisbon.

The Patrol said both vehicles were traveling west and Miss Cox came over the brow of a hill and had to leave the road to avoid hitting the tractor.

poll lists to record their choices by affidavit.

The vote-in, the sources said, would protest registration practices and procedures. A circular urging unregistered persons to file affidavits was circulated throughout the state.

However, the state attorney general said the law dealt with those who had registered and whose names were left off the poll books by mistake.

Patterson said that election officials had a duty not to let unqualified persons vote.

Khrushchev, however, repeated his call for an East-West nonaggression pact "to show all the peoples that the militarily most agreement among themselves with the aim of evading thermonuclear war."

Khrushchev was expected to leave Moscow today for a Black Sea vacation. He has invited Rusk to visit his seaside dacha, and the U.S. secretary will probably fly down to Gagra, on the Soviet Riviera, on Thursday.

Poles Don't Know It, But They're In for a Belting

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Wait'll I give 'em 'Swanee,'" said Lulu Porter, her dark eyes flashing. "Then I'll hit 'em with 'Come Rain or Come Shine.'" How's that for a combination?

Lulu, 22, was packing her bags — and planning exactly what she was going to do to the Polish Ministry of Culture and Art's International Song Festival.

The Poles may not know it yet, but they're in for a belting. "I've got a big voice," said Lulu, a 5-foot-3 brunette who lived in Youngstown, Ohio, before moving to Hollywood. "I'm a better. I'll promise you one thing. They'll hear me all over the hall."

The International Song Festival opens in Warsaw for three days, starting Aug. 16, and the pretty night club singer is the official U.S. entry.

"This is the first time an American girl has been entered," Lulu said Monday night, "and after the contest, they've booked me for a 10-city tour. They say I'm the first U.S. entertainer in Poland since World War II."

She will compete against popular singers from 32 countries.

Gray-Kuhns Nuptials Held In Lisbon Church

The First Presbyterian Church of Lisbon was the setting for the marriage Saturday at 4:30 p.m. of Miss Barbara Jean Gray and David Phillip Kuhns.

Rev. Paul T. Gerrard officiated before the altar decorated by palms and baskets of white gladioli.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Willis C. Gray of W. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, and the late Mr. Gray. Mr. and Mrs. Knight Kuhns of W. Washington St., Lisbon, are the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth E. Gray of Toledo, the bride wore a satin - sheer gown, fashioned with scoop neckline and short sleeves. The bell-shaped, ballerina-length skirt was designed with a self fabric rose. A matching rose, attached to a silk pill box, held her short veil of illusion, and she wore the bridegroom's gift, a pearl necklace and earrings. She carried a bouquet arrangement of stephanotis and ivy, centered by a white orchid.

Mrs. Kenneth E. Gray served her sister-in-law as matron of honor. Her gown of coral silk organza had a square neckline and highlighting the bell shaped, ballerina-length skirt were self-fabric roses. She wore a coral crown, embroidered with pearls, and her colonial bouquet was of coral and white roses.

Richard Kuhns of Lisbon served as best man for his brother. The bride's mother was attired in a navy blue chiffon dress, with navy and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a sheer knit dress of navy and her accessories were navy and pink. Both complemented their attire with corsages of white roses. A dinner at Timberlanes in Salem was held immediately following the ceremony for the wedding guests.

The bride's table, for the reception held at the social room of the First Presbyterian Church, Saturday evening was covered with white lace, centered by a five-tiered cake, topped by miniature bride and bridegroom. Around the base were strewn individual gladioli and ivy.

Serving were Miss Barbara Wetzel, Mrs. Richard Kuhns, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, both of Lisbon, Mrs. Samuel S. Drakulich of Salem, assisted by Mrs. Carol Page, Miss Marcia Kuhns, niece of the bridegroom, both of Lisbon, and Mrs. Clarence E. Bowman of Salem. Mrs. Gail M. McCune of Lisbon registered the guests.

The bride is a graduate of Lisbon high school, attended Mount Union College and has been employed as a secretary by the Mullins Manufacturing Corp. of Salem.

The bridegroom, also a graduate of Lisbon High School, is sales representative of Becton Dickinson and Co. of Sutherland, N. J., for the Cleveland area.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, the newlyweds will reside at Strongsville, O., where they have purchased a new home.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Folks: We have had so many requests from you all for the following answers to everyday spot removal emergency treatment, and here is a compiled list in short form. Cut it out and paste it in your cook books so you will know where to find it when you need it. We do not keep back copies of columns.

You can always send 15 cents to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C., and ask for the booklet "Removing Stains From Fabrics." It's great.

While you are waiting, here are a few hints:

Always work from the back of a piece of fabric when using liquids to remove a stain. Why? Liquify the stain and spread it through clean, non-damaged fibers? Place stain over a piece of toweling. . . then pour fluids through or wipe them in with cotton, etc. Stain will dissolve on underneath toweling.

Replace with clean portion of towel and continue until stain leaves and there is no more residue on underneath towel.

When working on stains which require absorbent "powders" (such as starch, chalk, soda, etc.); work from the FRONT of the garment where the damage is.

NOTE: An (x) means spot test on hidden part of the fabric first to see if it's safe for your particular fabric and follow directions on product.

BALL POINT INK: Some are impossible! Try rubbing alcohol (x) first. Or fingernail cuticle remover (x). Or: amyl acetate (x) available at most drug stores. Apply with washcloth and rub.

BLOOD: Flush with cold water (x). Soak in 1/2 cup salt (x) and two cups cold water. Wash (x) and rinse as usual.

Meat tenderizer (x) when mixed with cold water and applied as a paste will often dissolve blood. Allow to set until blood dissolves, scrape off with spoon and continue until no more color appears, then wash as usual.

Three per cent peroxide (x) is often useful if applicable. Or bleach (x).

COLLAR LINES: The yellow lines on men's and women's shirts! Buy dime store chalk (x) and draw heavy line over soiled area, let sit overnight. This may be applied on dry or damp articles. Dry is best. Repeat if necessary. Chalk will absorb oil and the dirt will wash out.

FINGERNAIL POLISH: Amyl acetate (x) (drugstore) should be sponged on with a piece of cotton from backside of fabric AFTER placing a piece of toweling underneath to absorb dissolved polish. When underneath absorbing rag is discolored, replace with clean portion of toweling.

LIPSTICK: Use pure glycerine (x) (drugstore), pure liquid detergent (x), or cleaning fluids (x), or rubbing alcohol (x) as a last resort if it's safe for fabric. Work onto the fabric first, let sit, then wash (x).

MAKEUP MARKS: Usually powder and rough on dark necklines of garments. Dip terry cloth washrag in white vinegar (x), wring out well, and wipe soiled marks briskly.

MILK AND CREAM: Wash in neutral detergent (x) suds and warm water (x). Rinse (x). If spot remains, use cleaning fluid (x).

MUCUS: Soak in 1/4 cup salt (x) and a quart of warm water (x). Cleaning fluids (x) may sometimes be necessary if vomit contains butter fats. Wash (x) as usual.

MUSTARD: Work glycerine (x) (drugstore) into stain and let set. Then detergent (x). Bleaches (x) and alcohol (x) are sometimes necessary for any remaining spots.

NAPKIN STAINS: Wet white linen or cotton napkin and apply scouring powder (x) which says "contains bleach" and rub with stiff brush. Let sit and then rinse (x). Cleaning fluids (x) are sometimes necessary to remove oils. Bleaches (x) may also be used . . . if any spot remains.

PARAFFIN: (wax) Scrape off as much as possible AFTER it solidifies. Iron between white paper napkins or tissues with warm iron as long as any wax appears on tissue. Cleaning fluids (x) are also useful after the above procedure.

RUG SPILLS: Blot up as much moisture as possible. Cover with clean, white bath towel, step over damp spot, twist foot (allowing pressure) until no more moisture appears. Cover with white towel and weight down with heavy books for at least 24 hours. This will help prevent spotting but will not remove ink, etc. First aid ONLY.

RUST: Use commercial rust removers (x) (drug and department stores) or: one tablespoon oxalic acid (x) (drugstore) in one cup of hot water (x) if applicable to fabric. Rinse in baking soda (x) water.

STARCH: Plastic! When too much has been used and you cannot wash it out of the material try using rubbing alcohol (x). Dilute with water if necessary for your fabric. Spot test fabric first to see if it is safe for your material.

SCORCH: A cloth dipped in 3 per cent peroxide (x) and used as a pressing cloth removes most scorches. Household bleaches (x) can also be used. At a LAST resort, use fine sandpaper (x). Professional cleaners use it!

SHINE: Dip wash cloth in white vinegar (x). Wring out thoroughly. Rub material briskly and hard. Let dry. Do not iron. Some professional cleaners use sandpaper! But it removes some of the fibers.

SWEATER "KNOTS": Use fine sandpaper (x) and just sand away! Will remove knots and sweater will look like new.

UNDERARM ODORS: Caused from bacteria. Wash (x) garment in neutral detergent and rinse in one cup of white vinegar (x) to one gallon of water. Let soak (x) if possible for an hour or so.

YELLOW "TREATED" COTTONS: Never use regular household bleaches. Remove dingy stains with commercial color removers (x) bought at the dime and drug stores. Soak garment in 140 degree water (in glass or enamel container) with remover (x), only until water discolors. Remove garment and make new solution for second application if necessary. Use commercial "nylon brighteners" when washing thereafter.

And, friends, if you have any more complaints about spots, etc., do write to us. Tell me what it is you want. I will research it and do my best to please you.

This column was written at your request. It's your requests that please me. My coffee pot is at

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Health Questions, Answers

Q—I have been using mineral oil as advised by my doctor each night with good results. I do not swallow it, but use it as an enema. Is this harmful?

A—Your doctor knows more about your special problems than I do. I have repeatedly recommended that small enemas be used instead of laxatives. I would prefer the use of plain warm water, but if you prefer mineral oil or if your doctor thinks it's better for you, there is no harm in using it in this way. I would not, however, advise making the use of any type of enema a nightly routine.

Q—Is it true that in order to do you any good, exercise must be done in the morning on arising?

A—The only general restrictions on exercise I know are: Don't engage in violent exercise for at least 30 minutes after a heavy meal, and don't exercise to the point of over-fatigue. If you are going to exercise a set of muscles you have not been using, you should do the exercises for only a few minutes and increase the amount gradually from day to day. The time of day is thought to be of little or no importance.

Q—I have been having trouble with my eyelids. The doctor calls it blepharitis. It is very painful. Is there a cure and will it affect my vision?

A—Blepharitis is an inflammation of the lids. It often goes with chronic conjunctivitis. It may be due to uncorrected errors of vision, especially farsightedness and astigmatism. It may be due to eyelash and eyelid cosmetics. It should not affect the vision. But, unless it is properly treated, complications that could affect the vision may occur. An eye specialist should be consulted if the present treatment does not clear it up within 10 days.

Q—I am over 50 and am troubled with itching ears and itching eyelids. What causes this and can it be helped?

A—The causes of itching are legion but a common cause of itching of the ears and eyelids is seborrheic dermatitis, a disease that is associated with excessive dandruff and that is vastly improved by controlling the dandruff. This and allergy are the two commonest causes of the kind of itching you have.

Pair Binds, Robs Couple of $2,670

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two well dressed robbers took $22,000 worth of jewelry and furs and $870 in cash after tying up a Shaker Heights man and his wife in their apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ephreim Horowitz told police they were waiting for an interior decorator at the apartment Monday when the buzzer rang. Horowitz unlocked the front door, he said, and was faced with a snub-nosed revolver. Two men came in carrying briefcases in front of their faces.

The men used curtain cord to tie Horowitz, 57, a real estate investor, and his wife, Gussie, 53. Both were gagged with pillows. One of the men rifled the closets and a bedroom jewelry case while the other pressed a revolver against Horowitz's neck. One of the robbers also ripped a diamond ring from Horowitz's finger. Horowitz had to be treated later for a finger injury.

The entire robbery took only five minutes.

Man, Get Wise! Pep Up

Thousands are peppy at 70! So, if you feel weak, low in energy, "old" at 40, 50 or 60, quit blaming it on age. If you want to feel younger, try Oxtrex Tonic Tablets at once. Also for debility due to rundown body's lack of iron, the "below-par" feelings you may call "being old." Put pep in both sexes. Try Oxtrex—feel peppy, younger, 8-day "get-acquainted" size costs little. All druggists.

Pennel Sets World Record In Pole Vault At London

Leaps 16-10 1/4 As U.S. Romps Uncle Sam's Squad Posts 4th Win In Row

By JIM BECKER LONDON (AP)—One of the best and youngest, American track teams split up today, with important international experience tucked away for the future and four victories in the record book. John Pennel of Miami, Fla., who has snapped the world pole vault record six times this year, and three times in a little more than three weeks, set his latest mark, 16 feet, 10 1/4 inches, on Monday on the final day of the two-day meet with Britain. It broke his mark of 16-8 set in the same stadium July 13, and bettered by a fraction of an inch his showing in Warsaw July 26. The Yanks got off to a bad start on the four-meet European trip, and had to battle back to salvage a 119-114 victory over the Soviet Union in Moscow, but then they got rolling. They took the Poles 125-83 and West Germany 141-82 before coming to London. The U.S. coach, Payton Jordan, shuffled his forces throughout the four meets, with an eye to getting maximum international experience for the team. "This was a real young team—half of them had never been abroad before," Jordan said. "They got better as they went along, and the young fellows got running experience that will be valuable at the Russian meet next year and the Tokyo Olympics."

Robert Hayes and Henry Carr, who hold the sprint world records, improved with every race. So did middle distance man Tom O'Hara. About half the team members are to fly home late Tuesday. Two small groups are going to Sweden and Norway, another to Jamaica and a fourth to Romania. The American girls, humiliated in Moscow, got better every time out too. They lost to the British girls—as they had lost at every other stop—but managed to win four of the 11 events on their program here. In the windup of the British meet, the Americans swept to 1-2 finishes in four events and took the mile relay. Frank Covelli won the javelin for the other American win, while the British took the 3,000-meter steeplechase, the three miles, triple jump and shot put.

Superior Meets Penn Grill In Showdown Match

Penn Grill will try to regain the lead it has held several times this season, when its golf team takes on Friday Division leader Superior Wall Paper in a showdown match at Flying B course this week. Superior, 89 1/2, managed to pick up only three points during last week's action, while Penn Grill tallied five markers and trails in second place six points back. A four-way battle is being waged in the Friday Division. Shamrock Lanes which was beaten 7 1/2-2 1/2 clings to first place with 91 1/2 points. Duquesne, 89; Flying B, 87 1/2 and Aid Budget 85 follow closely behind. Walt Elvick of Shamrock Lanes carded a two-under par 35 to take medalist honors. Dick Huffman of Flying B fired a 38 and John Pozniko of Salem Tool finished with a 39. Tony Kataro of Greene Oil and Demps Balsley of Penn Grill fired 37s to tie for first place honors in Friday's bracket. A 38 was posted by Corso's Bill Wagner and 39s were tallied by Jim Griffith of Greene Oil, Bob Schaefer of Penn Grill, Ralph Knepper and Gus Paparodis of Corso's, and Flick Entriens of Franklin.

Giants Lose To Colts 6-5 Despite Mays' 28th Homer

By BOB GREEN Associated Press Sports Writer Woodeshick and Warwick may sound like a vaudeville team but they amuse the San Francisco Giants not at all.

In fact, there was only gloom in the Giants' dressing room after the Colts' Hal Woodeshick and Carl Warwick finished their act at Houston Monday night.

It wasn't a standard performance. Each did something he either didn't want to do or wasn't expected to do. But when it was all over, they were the key figures in Houston's 6-5 victory over the Giants in the only game scheduled in the major leagues.

Woodeshick, a relief pitcher, gave up a home run to Willie Mays, something relief pitchers don't like to do. But he came out of it the winner.

And Warwick, a light-hitting outfielder, was inserted for defensive purposes in the eighth when Houston had a 4-2 lead. But he wound up the offensive star, driving in the winning run with a two-out single in the ninth.

The loss spoiled the Giants' hopes of making up a little ground on National League-leading Los Angeles and dropped them back to a tie for second with St. Louis, five games off the pace.

The Colts, leading 4-2, appeared to be on the way to an easy victory when starter Don Nottebart ran into trouble in the eighth. Willie McCovey led off with his 33rd homer of the season and Mays followed with a single. Woodeshick came on, making his 39th appearance of the season. A single by Orlando Cepeda and a Colt error let in the tying run, but Woodeshick struck out the last two men to end the inning. He struck out two more in the top of the ninth before Mays crashed his 28th homer into the left centerfield stands for a 5-4 Giants lead.

Michigan State and Illinois have divided their six football games. They play this fall on Nov. 23.

How did we get 2,750,000 of the most careful drivers to insure with us? We offered them a good deal! 100,000 drivers might be wrong. Or even 200,000. But not 2,750,000! Especially not the 2,750,000 drivers we insure. (They're careful people with the safety records to prove it!) Stands to reason that they, of all people, wouldn't be careless about their car insurance. You can bet, before they bought, they shopped around for the best deal. Checked rates, checked claims service, checked extra benefits. We're proud they chose us. And we think they're happy with us, too. A study of our records shows that nine out of ten will be back again next year. How about Nationwide for your car? Call the Nationwide agent nearest you. He's listed in the Yellow Pages.

Merchants Vending, Moose Post Wins In Junior Baseball

Merchants Vending took advantage of 20 walks to clip Independent Hose Club 12-4 in a Salem Junior Baseball Class H contest at Reilly Field Monday.

In another tilt, Moose Lodge took a 7-0 lead in the initial inning and went on to beat Cherry Hill 12-2 at Buckeye Field.

Pitcher Jim Shoff went the distance for Merchants Vending. He gave up only three hits, walked six and struck out 10.

The winners put the game out of reach in the third inning, scoring five runs on six walks and an error.

Shoff led the winners with two hits. Denny Niederhiser belted a double in the fifth frame.

Ed Koran socked a double, and Tim Mulhman and Steve Miller each singled for the losers' only hits.

A total of 12 Moose batters went to plate in the seven-run first. The winners scored in every inning, adding eight in the fourth.

Browns Cut Roster Down To 51 Players

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—The Cleveland Browns have cut their roster to 51 players by asking for waivers on defensive halfback Terry Hanley of Ohio State and rookie offensive guards Kelly Dick of Georgia and John Gardner of Oklahoma State.

Hansley, 25, was trying to make the Browns for the second straight year. Kelly, the shortest player in camp, is 5-foot-9 and weighs 270 pounds, while Gardner is a 6-2, 231-pounder. The cuts were announced Monday night.

The Browns are polishing their offense and defense for the first exhibition game of the season—a test against the Lions at Detroit Saturday night.

Coach Blanton Collier has picked Larry Benz, rookie defensive halfback from Northwestern, to start against the Lions at left safety. The 22-year-old back played at Cleveland Heights High School and once was a quarterback.

Justice Douglas Marries Girl 41 Years His Junior

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Mercedes Douglas plans to marry today — The day after her former husband, Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, married a girl 41 years his junior.

Mrs. Douglas divorced him six days ago.

Monday — as her husband's marriage to a 23-year-old government girl was making headlines — Mercedes Douglas came up with some news of her own: At 6 p.m. today, at the home of a friend, she would marry Robert B. Eichholz, 52, a Washington attorney.

Mrs. Douglas is 46. Their sudden marriage plans came as a surprise to many — as did the marriage of the towering, white-thatched justice to a secretary whom he first met when she was a college coed.

The former Joan Carol Martin and Douglas were united in a church ceremony at Buffalo, N.Y.

Arrests In July Total 32 in City

City police made 32 arrests during July, according to a report issued today by Chief Martin Lutsch.

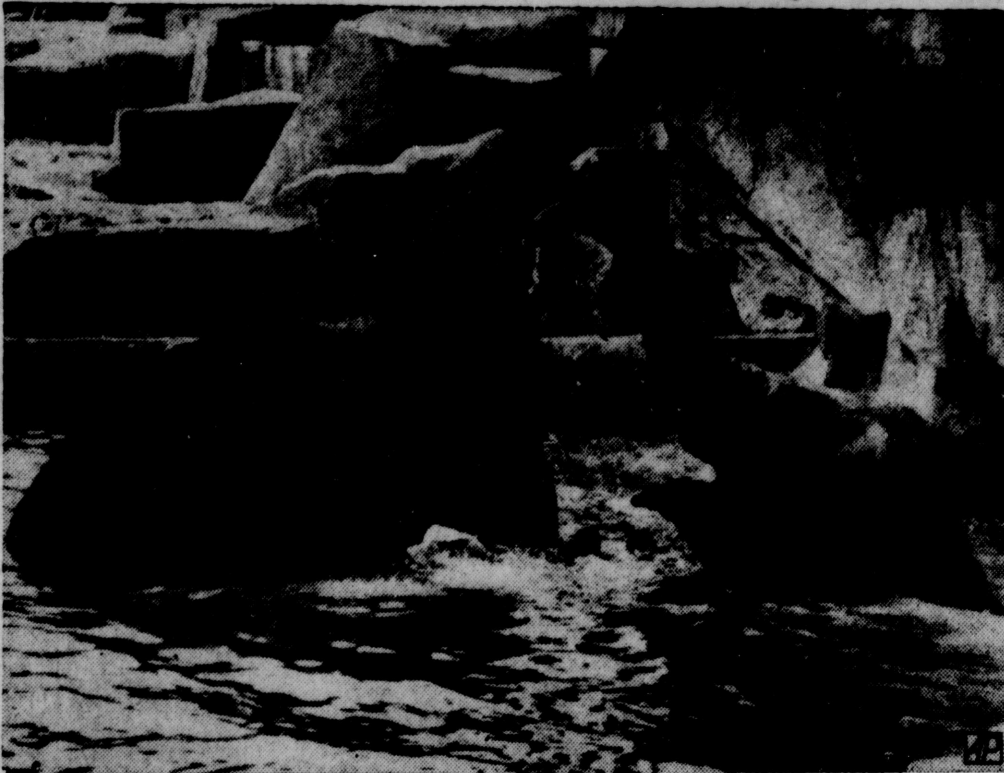

Violations of road and traffic laws accounted for 14 of the arrests with traffic and motor vehicle laws violations second with six. Three persons were arrested for drunkenness, two each for larceny and driving while intoxicated, and five persons were cited on miscellaneous charges.

Twenty-two two-car mishaps were investigated, four fixed object accidents, and one each of hit-skip, three-car, four-car and one-car crashes were probed.

The department made 1,129 telephone calls, of which 481 needed further police attention, 690 transmissions were made, 14 dead animals were picked up and seven dog bite cases were investigated.

The two police cruisers were driven a total of 7,714 miles on 722.2 gallons of gasoline and tire and repair costs amounted to $202.08.

Eighteen reports were made for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

HOT DAY PLAY — Elephants at Milwaukee's Zoo found a way to beat the 93-degree temperature as they dipped in a private pool and seemed to laugh a little as they sprayed one another.

Effect of Dairy Strike

"Dairymen's Co-Operative Sales Association members fared better than we thought possible during the recent Pittsburgh milk industry strike," reported C. A. Houlette, Columbiana County farmer and member of the Association's 10-man board of directors.

"It's true that milk producers bear the greatest economic loss of any segment of the industry during such disasters," Houlette added. "However, the DCSA staff performed a sales and transportation job which prevented the loss of even a drop of members' milk. The Association's contract haulers deserve real thanks for their irregular hours of work, and the long hauls many of them willingly made to deliver milk to some distant outlet."

A preliminary estimate from Association Manager Homer H. Martz indicates that nearly 1 1/2 million pounds of milk was moved each day during the 5-day emergency for a total of over 7 million pounds. While much of this was sold at distress prices, minus additional hauling costs, a considerable amount was sold as fluid milk in various short supply markets.

Since three of these days fell in July and the other two in August, the loss to producers will be spread over a two-month period. The July blend price to farmers will be lowered by some 7 to 8 cents per hundredweight, and the August farm price will be down approximately 5 cents for the month, due to the disaster.

All 3,000 DCSA members in the Pittsburgh market share in this loss in proportion to the amount of milk they produce, a marketing technique which made possible the remarkable feat of no "spilled" milk. Houlette concluded by stating, "This experience, costly as it was, is strong positive evidence of how milk producers, working cooperatively can meet emergencies with a minimum of loss. This is a far cry from reports of non-members who lost entire shipments for want of a buyer, or who sold at $2 to $3.00 per hundredweight below their usual price."

Summitville Council To Meet Thursday

SUMMITVILLE — Mayor Ernest Phillips will preside when Summitville Village Council meets in regular session at 8 p.m. Thursday. The meeting date has been changed this month because of vacations. A representative of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. will be present to discuss rate schedules.

CITED AFTER CRASH

LISBON — Homer McPherson of 604 E. Lincoln Way was cited following a collision of a truck and car Monday at 1 p.m. just north of square on N. Market St., police reported.

McPherson's truck hit the rear of a car driven by Alma Azdell, East Liverpool, who stopped for traffic, police said.

McPherson was cited for failure to stop within the assured clear distance by Police Chief Leon Zahndt.

INSPECT COUNTY HOME

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners took no official action on any matter at their meeting Monday, but they made an inspection of the County Home and grounds.

The commissioners' next meeting will be Thursday from 10 a. m. to 4 p.m.

MAY SUCCEED DAY — This is former Sen. Benjamin A. Smith II, who has been named by a source close to J. Edward Day as the man likely to succeed Day as Postmaster General, who resigned last week.

4-H Group Rehearses For County Fair Show

LISBON — The fourth rehearsal for the annual 4-H grand stand show was held Monday evening in the floral hall at the county fair grounds, according to Tom Rudebeck, assistant 4-H agent.

The 1963 show will be an old time minstrel and will be presented Aug. 22 at 8:30 p.m. in front of the grand stand.

Over 40 youths from seven clubs will be in the cast for the minstrel, which will feature old-time songs, dances and skits. The program will be under the direction of James Reid of East Palestine.

Franklin Township Trustees Convene

Routine road maintenance was the main topic of discussion when Franklin Township trustees met Monday at the township house, with Paul Dowdell presiding.

It was announced that the road-way mowing is almost completed and the finishing of the blacktop project will be done as soon as county work crews are in the area.

Constable Forrest Young made the following report for the month of July: Miles patrolled, 278; accidents investigated, 1; warnings issued, 6; arrests, 1; and miscellaneous phone calls, 12.

Bills totaling $2,880.28 were paid.

Next meeting will be Aug. 19.

TRANSFERRED — Byron De La Beckwith, 42, of Greenwood, Miss., sits at state mental hospital at Whitfield, Miss., after he was transferred from Hinds County Jail. Beckwith is accused of slaying civil rights leader Medgar Evers.

Unless Reduced Award Is Accepted Judge Buzzard Allows New Trial In County Job Case

LISBON — A common pleas court ruling allows the county commissioners a new trial unless a Columbiana woman agrees to accept a reduced amount in settlement of her claim for being dismissed illegally as the telephone operator at the Courthouse by Commissioners Walter Hunston and Galen Greenisen.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard found Friday "the verdict of the jury on the question of damages to be manifestly against the weight of the evidence," and granted the commissioners a new trial in their suit with Mrs. Jane Case, former PBX operator, unless she consents to accept $512 in settlement of her claim for $3,472.50.

A common pleas court jury June 27 awarded her a verdict of $3,984.50, but the prosecutor's office filed a motion for a new trial immediately.

In the eight-page opinion Judge Buzzard said, "The evidence clearly shows that she did not persevere, that there was nothing constant or steady in her attempts to get work. The court does not believe that she was under obligation to spend all her time looking for work, but certainly she was under an obligation to do considerably more than what the evidence shows she did."

The court said her efforts to secure work while laid off from her Civil Service job consisted of a phone call to Kaiser Chemical Co., and casual inquiries about a job at Ben Franklin and Vogue Stores, while shopping. Judge Buzzard also said that when her deposition was taken prior to the trial, she admitted that she just stayed at home and did nothing toward finding a job after April 4, 1961. She was released Feb. 1, 1961.

Jane Case and four other county employees, Patricia Barborak, West Point; Camilla Smith, Wells-ville, and Ruth Wining, also of Columbiana, were discharged by the county commissioners, but they claimed Civil Service status and the four filed an action in the Seventh District Court of Appeals. On an appeal to the state supreme court, that tribunal by a four to two decision, found that the employees had provisional or temporary Civil Service status at the time of their discharge and could not be fired without cause.

After the high court ordered the women reinstated, the county commissioners rehired them but immediately discharged them for alleged political activity in violation of civil service provisions.

Mrs. Case appealed and this matter is pending in the Court of Appeals. The other three employees did not appeal the second discharge.
